

CONDON WILL CELEBRATE THE 4TH. EVERYBODY COME

The Condon Globe

VOL. XVII.

CONDON, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1907.

NO. 15.

REDS LOSE TWO GAMES

Owing to a lack of practice the Condon team lost both games on the home grounds last Sunday. The first game was with Clem and was exciting all the way through, the score being three to two. Gray's arm was not in condition but he pitched a good game and held the Clem boys down to few safe hits. Welshons pitched a good game and in fact all the visitors played good ball and showed the result of hard practice. Chandler, Clem's first bagger, was in Portland but his place was creditably filled by M. Welshons. Only seven innings were played in order to have plenty of time for both games.

Following is the lineup and score.

CONDON		CLEM
Gray	p	K. Welshons
Parker	c	Crum
Fitzmaurice	1b	M. Welshons
Rice	2b	Ashenfelter
Burns	ss	W. Keeney

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	Total
Condon	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Clem	0	1	1	0	0	0	1	1	0	3

Strikeouts—Gray 11, Welshons 8. Base on balls—Gray 3, Welshons 2. Two base hits—Bates. Left on bases—Condon 5, Clem 5.

The Mayville boys came over to "get theirs" and they certainly got it in a seven inning game in which they pushed ten men across the home plate while the Condon boys were only able to get one man that far. Ashenfelter of Clem pitched for Mayville and had the home boys guessing from start to finish. Stinchfield, Mayville's catcher, played his position in fine shape. Morrison did the twirling for Condon in the first three innings when, on account of a lame arm, he was replaced by Page, who finished the game.

Following is the lineup and score:

CONDON		MAYVILLE
Page	p	Ashenfelter
Gray	c	Stinchfield

Mayville	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Strikeouts—Morrison 3, Page 3, Ashenfelter 11. Base on balls—Page 1. Hit by pitcher—Morgan, Weinert. Double plays—Rice to Parker. Left on bases—Condon 7, Mayville 10. Two base hits—Ashenfelter.

NOTES

Gray can handle the big mit behind the bat if necessary.

The boys put in a couple of hours Monday morning pulling weeds. Somebody remarked that they were doing penance.

The management requests all spectators to stay in the grandstand during the game.

The Clem boys had on brand new suits and the neat appearance they presented may have something to do with the outcome.
